Notes from the Head Teacher

This is the last Coulsdon Chronicle of the spring term. Today we say goodbye to Mrs Lee as she leaves to go on maternity leave. We have been working together for nearly nine years as Head and Deputy Head, moving forward with the school's vision of a holistic, Christian and inclusive education for our children. Also with the focus on continuing to build a strong school community. And what a strong community we have needed to be to get through the past couple of years!

Thank you to Mrs Lee for all her hard work and dedication to Coulsdon C of E, she now needs to have a well earned rest as she prepares for the arrival of her new baby. It's great that I'll still see her in the school community over the next term before I retire.

PGL

We have had a great week at PGL with Year 6 on the Isle of Wight where the children have experienced many different activities including: archery, zip wiring, orienteering, climbing walls, campfire, Jacob's ladder and the famous giant swing! Here are some of the children's reflections about their week:

"I heard this quote before, 'the difference between try and triumph is a little umph!' this matches the feeling at PGL" Laura

"The activities are fun, they push you past your limits." Faisal and Moses

"They push you past your limits but not too far that you feel uncomfortable." Daisy

"The staff have been kind, supportive and encouraging" Owen

"This experience is a once in a lifetime opportunity -It's life changing in so many ways." Olivia
